Pastor Frank Talks about Friendships

By: Joyce Li

Pastor Frank Lenihan came to our school and gave a speech in chapel on September 24. When the student entered the chapel room, we found a piece of paper on each chair. After singing with the worship team, Pastor Frank asked us to write down the names of our best friend. Then he started to ask us about the qualities we think a good friend should have. But he reminded us that we lived in a broken world with broken relationships by telling a story about him and his friend arguing about who should wash the dishes. And then, the symptoms of a broken friendship were shown on his PowerPoint, such as avoidance, irritability, silence, and acts against each other. In order to repair broken relationships, we looked at how Jesus reconciles the relationships between God the Father and us. He loved (1 John 4:9-10); he humbled

Praying Worldwide By: Teagan Friesen

Bright and early on Wednesday, the 23rd of September, the students were all invited to meet at the LCHS flag pole. "See you at the Pole" is a prayer gathering for students to get together before school and send up a couple prayers along with other Christian communities all around the world. Students are encouraged to take this time of prayer for their families, friends, countries, and communities. After the prayers, the participants brought different

Lady Lions Have Busy Week By: Jason Toavs

The Lady Lions volleyball team had a busy weekend starting on the 24th traveling to Wolf Point to play their JV team. After losing the first match 25-13 they came back in the second match and won 25-19. Unfortunately though, after a hard fight, the ladies lost the final match 25-17. Then the next day the Lions hosted Nashua for the first home game of the season. It was a good game but the Lady lions ended up losing 3 out of 4 close matches. After traveling all the way to Whitewater the following day the Lady Lions fought hard but ended up losing three matches in a row. They were back at home on the 28th battling the Glasgow Scottie's JV. There were three close matches, but unfortunately they resulted with the Scotties on top all three times. The season isn't over yet. Keep fighting, Lady Lions!

Missionaries visit LCHS By: Emily Eggar

LCHS had a crazy Monday this week because Chapel was presented on Monday instead of Thursday. Our guest speakers were missionaries Spencer and Diane; Spencer and Diane's mission field is in central Asia focusing on the Islamic faith. The Muslim's believe in the Koran which tells the Muslims to read the Bible and follow the teachings of Jesus. Muslims believe that Christianity and Islam are the same but they do a few things differently. Diane and Spencer strive to show the Muslim's the true Word and introduce them to Jesus. Diane spoke about how much she had changed since Spencer first mentioned going overseas. Diane informed the LCHS students of how important it was to step out of your comfort zone and how great it was when she finally decided to follow God's calling. Diane and Spencer really enjoy what they do! They encouraged the students to do their part wherever they are. There are people in need everywhere and not just in other countries. You can do your part wherever you are, so don't be afraid to try your best and just be you.

foods for breakfast for a time of fellowship. Even though only 10 students and staff attended this event, God does promise to be in the presence of his people when they pray. The first meeting in 1990 only had 10 attendees also.

New Sophomore Comes From Kodiak

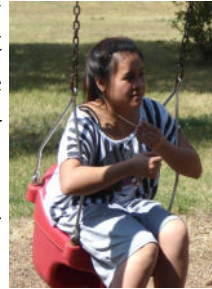

By: Monica Brown

Her nickname back home is J-Quelen, but the students at LCHS all know her as Jackie. Jacqueline Garchitorrena is a sophomore coming to us from Kodiak, Alaska. For those that don't know where the Kodiak Island is located, it's an island that sits just south of the Alaskan coast. Jackie says that the thing she loves most about Lustre is how the people have been so welcoming. When asked what she misses most about home, she said, "I miss my mom, friends, and my dog." When she has her headphones in, you can bet that she's either listening to One Direction or Hoodie Allen, two of her favorite artists. Her favorite class at this point is choir, and she loves any type of food with pasta in it! This fun, lovable sophomore is someone that you definitely want to get to know!

Friendship

(Philippians 2:8); he suffered (1 Peter 3:18); he invited us to be reconciled (2 Corinthians 5:17-19); he forgave (Ephesians 4:32). Pastor Frank also reminded us to pray for ourselves, the friends we want to reconcile with, and the situation.

In the end of the story of Pastor Frank and his friends, Pastor Frank went back to his friend, said sorry to him, and helped him with the dishes. We'll always find that our friends and us become closer after the relationships has been repaired.

The last and the most important is Jesus wants to be your best friend and he wants you to reconcile with the Father. Have you accepted it?
